

National Advocacy Center of the Sisters of the Good Shepherd
504 Hexton Hill Road • Silver Spring MD 20904
301.622.6838

Media Advisory: April 13, 2015

Larry Couch & National Advocacy Center at Senate Equal Pay Day Press Conference

It is time to make real progress on fair pay and end wage discrimination against women, especially single mothers living in poverty.

Larry Couch, Director of the National Advocacy Center of the Sisters of the Good Shepherd, will attend a Senate press conference on Tuesday urging passage of the Paycheck Fairness Act this Congress.

What: Senator Mikulski and Women Senators Equal Pay Day Press Conference

When: Tuesday, April 14th, 2015 12:30 pm ET

Where: Capitol Visitors Center, SVC 203

RSVP: Media must contact Senate Radio & TV Gallery at 202-224-6421 to attend

“Sisters of the Good Shepherd call for honoring the work of women by ensuring they receive equal pay. The sisters support and the National Advocacy Center support women just trying to pay the bills,” said Couch.

The National Advocacy Center offers education through processes and strategies that address social justice issues and advocates for the transformation of society to the benefit of all people. The center reflects the spirituality, history and mission of the Sisters of the Good Shepherd, working in solidarity with the disenfranchised - particularly families, women, and children.